'NO PETTING'

Miss Olive Potter, an artist's model of Chicago, presided over the first meeting of the "Slow Club" recently, when over 300 young people attended, in an effort to combat the hip pocket flask and petting movements among the younger generation. The organization proposes to have weekly parties where they will dance and sing and enjoy themselves in a manner pleasing to the most discerning of grandmothers. The "Black Bottom" will also be taboed.

TORRANCE NOTES

L. J. Acree of Gramercy avenue has returned from a two-weeks business trip to South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurum Reeve of Post avenue were visitors in Ontario Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Richhart spent Sunday with Misses Mamo and Wona Wimmer of Burbank.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hoy of Long Beach were guests Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodington of Arlington avenue.

Mrs. Zada Hastie of Marcelina avenue is reported on the sick list.

J. H. Erwin, owner of the Erwin Hotel building, was a business visitor in Torrance Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Scott enjoyed a weekend camping trip to Beaumont and vicinity.

Miss Verna Lange of Minnesota, Manitoba, is a house guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Woodington, of Arlington avenue. Miss Lange is recovering from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, performed soon after her arrival at the home of her sister in Long Beach.

Mrs. Lester Colburn of Long Beach spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Howe of Amapola avenue.

Guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Tomkins of Gramercy avenue were Mrs. Pear, Mrs. Garrison, and Charles Pear, of Sawtelle.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Briney and their house guests, R. B. Briney and daughter, Mrs. Beulah Krehbiel, of Abilene, Kan., enjoyed a weekend trip to Mt. Baldy and Lake Arrowhead.

Torrance Bakery Has New Owner

A change in ownership of comparatively recent date has occurred at the Torrance Bakery, 1235 Carson street, formerly operated by George Luppke.

H. J. Savage of Los Angeles has bought Mr. Luppke's interest, and is now turning out an excellent line of bakery supplies.

Mr. Savage has had the benefit of several years of experience in his trade, so that he knows how to please the taste of his patrons, and the changes he has made of the equipment and arrangement of his bakery and showroom have been a source of satisfaction to many customers.

Cleanliness to the highest degree and exceptional quality in the goods he offers for sale are the two main objects in Mr. Savage's plan of merchandising, and his efforts are being rewarded by an increasing patronage.

Parliamentary Law Drill for P-T. A.

Mrs. F. S. McNutt of Glendale conducted a very interesting parliamentary law drill at the meeting of the Torrance P-T-A. Tuesday afternoon. After Mrs. McNutt had explained the difference between officers and showed how members should address the chair, how to make motions, and what to do with the motions after they are made, also what to do with reports after discussion was held.

Another number on the program was a play written and produced by Mrs. Mabel Ella Sweet's room. The play was in honor of St. Patrick's Day, and consisted of Irish songs, dances, and legends. The scene was laid in Ireland, and the children were costumed appropriately for the time and place.

Members of the Girl Scouts gave a lesson in flag etiquette, Mildred Stanbury telling the manner of saluting the flag, Irene Newby the manner of raising and lowering the flag, Jean Wheaton the manner of hanging the flag for decoration, and Lucy Perry the manner of carrying the flag.

The pupils of Miss Thomas' room gave a demonstration of a writing lesson.

Mrs. Mabel Ella Sweet's room won the prize for upstairs for having the most mothers present, and Mrs. Ruth George's room for the most mothers downstairs.

Mrs. F. H. Clark reported that $57.59 had been raised on Tag Day.
